DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to Applicant's remarks received on March 17, 2008. Based on the amendments to the claims and the terminal disclaimer, the claims are found to be allowable. It is noted that this claimed invention is related to Application 10064228, which was allowed.

Interview Summary

On February 12, 2008, Applicant's representative discussed this application with the Examiner. An agreement was reached that a terminal disclaimer and claim amendments would make the application allowable.

Allowable Subject Matter

The closest patent prior art on record is Hammour et al. (US Pub. No. 2003/0233324), which discloses a declining balance co-ownership financial arrangement. The closest non-patent prior art on record is Murray Seasongood's article, Drastic Pledge Agreements, Harvard Law Review, January 1916, Vol. 29, No. 3, pp 277-290

Regarding claims 1, 10, 16 and 21:

Hammour taken individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest that a conditional remainder purchaser receives ownership interest in the real property only upon receipt of the fee simple interest on the determination date. Hammour teaches joint ownership at the inception of the creation of a relationship between one party providing financing to another party interested in purchasing real estate. Hammour does not teach or suggest a future interest exclusively, but rather teaches a present interest that decreases over a period of time.

Seasongood teaches taking security in a property without going through a judicial recourse. However, Seasongood does not teach the relationship between two owners of real property with one party providing financing to the other party.

Regarding all other claims

Since all other claims are dependent upon the above mentioned claims, these claims are also found allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to ABDUL BASIT whose telephone number is (571)272-7246. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday, 8:30am to 5:00pm.
